Wholesale Trade List for Spring of 1874.

Dutchess Nurseries

AND

COMMERCIAL GARDENS.

(Established 1863)

W. L. FERRIS, JR., & CO., Proprietors.

(Late L. M. FERRIS & SON.)

Nurseries on Hooker Avenue, one mile from City.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

The undersigned having succeeded to the business of L. M. FERRIS & SON, would respectfully solicit a continuance of the former patronage of the trade, and an increase thereof, as our extended facilities for supplying our customers will allow.

It will be the aim of the new firm, by close personal attention to all departments of the business, to supply their customers with such stock, that they will merit further orders.

PACKING, SHIPPING, TERMS, ETC.

Terms cash or satisfactory reference. All accounts subject to draft 60 days from date of shipment unless otherwise agreed upon.

Parties should give full directions for shipping their goods. In packing we charge merely cost of materials used.

We make no charge for delivery at freight offices. After such delivery our responsibility ceases. All demands for errors must be made within ten days from receipt of goods.

Fruit Department.

NOTE.—Prices of Fruit Trees given below are for our selection of varieties, but we will make the selection as nearly as possible to the wishes of our customers. For long lists of varieties we will make the price as low as possible.

Celery and Cabbage Plants contracted for in large quantities at cheap rates, for delivery in June and July.

Campbell's Late Rose Potato, boxed or in barrels, $1.25 per bushel or $2.50 per barrel.

PLANTS BY MAIL.

Packages of plants weighing four pounds or less can be sent by mail to any address, at two cents for every four ounces. We can send all kinds of bedding plants, bulbs, grape vines, raspberry plants, etc., by mail without damage. We pack so carefully in moss and oil paper that green plants can be on the road several days without injury. When practicable, however, we would advise having bedding plants sent by express in boxes.

N. B.—We will send any Bedding Plants, Bulbs, or Vegetable Plants by mail, post paid, on receipt of price, not beyond, however, 4 lbs. weight.

ADVERTISEMENT.

We would especially call the attention of the trade to the following articles, which we offer in large quantities, and at very low rates.

Small Evergreens for Nurserymen.

Large American Arborvitæ and Hemlock.

American Elms, Fine Norway Spruce, Downing Gooseberries, Cherry and La Versaillaise Currants, Wilson Strawberry Plants.

Small Roses for Nurserymen, and large quantities of Bedding Plants.

ADVERTISEMENT FOR FALL 1874.

We are now growing, or expect to grow during the coming season, a large stock of the following articles, of which we expect to make specialties for the Fall of 1874.

We desire correspondence in relation to it, and can make very liberal terms on contracts now.

Walter, Croton and Concord Grape Vines, one and two years old.

Downing Gooseberries, Cherry and La Versaillaise Currants. Roses from beds, and pot-grown for Winter blooming, and all kinds of Green-house and Winter-blooming Plants.
